WELCOME TO CAMGIRL VIXEN MAGAZINE

CamGirl Vixen Magazine is a unique content outlet for 18+ performers and content creators. It fills the empty space which now can be filled, giving a dedicated platform to them.

We are a small group of designers and writers that love digging and reaching out to people. Exploring untold stories, and sharing more stories that matter to 18+ models, performers, and content creators. We saw an opportunity to explore a space that we saw got little attention and had no dedicated media source for itself.

You can expect real and raw, insightful, educational, and entertaining articles, interviews, and posts from around this global community. We want to hear from all those willing to share, and we want to bring you, the reader, more useful content, and have you more connected to your favorite 18+ creator.

QUICK Q&As

TELL US A LITTLE ABOUT YOURSELF GROWING UP; AND WHAT WERE YOUR FAVORITE TV SHOWS, HOBBIES?

A: I grew up in Sussex, England, living across from the beach, so spent a lot time with my friends; swimming, having water fights, rollerskating, climbing trees. I went travelling when I was 19, I've been some beautiful places, and have now lived in New Zealand for 5 years.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR FIRST SEXUAL EXPERIENCE, AND WHAT DID YOU DISCOVER ABOUT YOURSELF?

I lost my virginity to my first boyfriend when I was 17, and it was in this relationship that I discovered I have an incredibly high sex drive. I haven't had one boyfriend, to this day, who has been able to keep up with how often I want sex.

WHAT LED OR INSPIRED YOU TO CREATING CONTENT ONLINE?

I had always been interested in it, then after watching a documentary featuring Bailey Rayne, I decided to give camming a go in June 2018. I had a really good first show, and now I do it full time. I love creating content, because I get to be creative and try new things.

SEX TOYS SAVES LIVES

BY: CAMGIRL VIXEN MAGAZINE

OK! Maybe the title is a little extreme but sex toys do serve an important role in today's pop culture.

Long gone are the days where talking about sex and sex toys were taboo. Enter into the age of free speech and free pleasure. The sex toy industry has boomed in the past decade, becoming more accessible to any and everyone seeking to up their pleasure game whether they go solo or with a mate.

WHAT'S CAUSED THE SURGING SEX TOY FRENZY?

The truth is, people seem to love using sex toys in their relationships. In an article written by Katherine Schreiber and Heather Hausenblas Ph.D. and posted to Psychology Today titled "How Sex Toys Impact Relationships", the authors stated "While 53% of heterosexual women report having ever used a sex toy, 86% of women who have sex with women say they've used a sex toy – and experienced a noticeable uptick in sexual satisfaction because of it."

The article further stated "Generally speaking, couples who can explore novel ways of being intimate –including trying out one or more sex toys – tend to fare better in terms of maintaining passion and desire (in addition to relationship satisfaction) over the long haul. A 2016 study conducted by Chapman University's David Frederick, Ph.D., found that women and men who reported feeling satisfied by their relationship and the sex that they had with their partners were more likely to report having used sex toys together – in addition to other activities, such as taking a shower together, trying new positions in bed, and scheduling a date night to have sex.

women and men who reported feeling (sexually) satisfied by their partners were more likely to have used sex toys

MEN VS. THE SEX TOY

You love your vibrator and your dildos. Yes you do right? When it comes to heterosexual males in relationships, maybe not so much. Though the thought of sprucing up your sex life with the latest thruster all sounds good, the other side to this is that it's believed that many guys feel inadequate when their partner suggests using a sex toy. It's reported that some men feel like suggesting the use of a sex toy during sex is a shot to their manhood. And in a world that says size matters, no wonder there's a sense of competition. And it's a fight for any man to compare to any dildo or vibrator. If you are in a relationship with a man and you suggest a sex toy, and they are less than enthused, you may want to consider his feelings and communicate with him about it. The Globe and Mail article titled "My husband hates my sex toy. What do I do?" sums things up nicely, "Ultimately, you have to explain to your husband that you love sex with him. Reassure him that nothing can replace his manhood. But like most things, sex becomes way more interesting when you add a little technology to the mix."

In the end, it's up to you how you choose to approach this with your partner. By yourself it's all gravy, but when it comes to using sex toys with someone else, communication is key. Never assume. But from experience, I don't know why one wouldn't want to use toys during play. It really helps to intensify, lighten, and even cause for experimental play.

Do you use sex toys with your mate? How was it first introduced to your relationship(s). camgirl

FUN FACTS

YOUR TURN-ONS

Tall handsome man with deep velvety voice and good hygiene and respects women and knows how to use his fingers and is absolutely devoted to and will take care of me...I'm definitely getting carried away.

FAVORITE MOVIE(S)

Most of Jean-Luc Godard and Wong Kar Wai films, Nymphomaniac and Belle Du Jour.

FAVORITE BODY FEATURE(S)

I'd like to think (and have been told) I have perfect tits. I've also been told I have perfect intimate area anatomy.

CRAZIEST PLACE(S) YOU'VE EVER HAD SEX

In an upper-floor hotel suite with full-length windows at New Year's Eve. I saw the multitude of New Year's fireworks from the bed, then some more because the guy was absolutely amazing <3.

FAVORITE CAR(S)

Anything legally compliant with enough wriggle room for fucking on road trips (or any trips, for that matter).

From the onset you can tell Ayumi is more than meets the eye. The self proclaimed sugar baby is boasts that she's your friendly neighborhood baby girl...one you can find her everywhere. Visit her ContactInBio page and you'll see exactly what we mean. From what we can tell, she's super cute, fun, and brilliant. According to Ayumi's myfreecams profile page, she's majored in chemical engineering. I kid you not! And, her exotic look is a result of a Japanese/Indonesian mix.

Ayumi took the time to get a little more personal with us, so check out what she had to say. You're in for a treat.

Hello, glad you took the time to speak with us. So, tell me, what first attracted you to CamGirl Vixen Magazine?

It's refreshing to find a magazine focused solely on camgirls! Camgirls have been an ever-growing part of the adult entertainment industry. Some do get featured in other adult media, but it's rare to find a place that introduces camgirls as camgirls, apart from their other work.

Tell us a little about yourself growing up; and what were your favorite TV shows, hobbies?

I was a precocious only-child! I grew up in Tokyo, next door to the famous Shinjuku red light district, and was prone to wandering off on my own - which also led me to catch sight of a shibari photo exhibition poster. I thought the red rope against skin was beautiful, and I've been fascinated by shibari/kinbaku ever since. I grew up mainly watching Sailor Moon and some weird British kids shows I can't remember.

As for hobbies, I read lots of books out of boredom and I sew clothes, but hopefully I'll graduate to making myself lingerie soon.

Looking back at your childhood, what's one thing you would tell your adolescent self?

That I was absolutely correct in every choice I made, but to probably work harder and take more breaks (worryingly contradictory, as always).

Through high school, what were you best known for?

Sulking around campus in all black and being so uninterested in boys my age - to be fair I had a slew of lovely, absolutely charming, sugar daddies who were tons more respectful and worth my time. I guess I knew my worth!

Still, in high school, what did you want to pursue as a career at that time?

I wanted to work in science communications or as a scientific researcher because I like the anonymity and impartiality that science (ideally) provides. I'm still working on it!

In college, what was that experience like for you and share one stand out moment you remember clearly?

I'm still in college/university and I'm lucky it doesn't take up all my time, letting me be a total internet nympho! My clearest and dearest memory (so far) is being flown out to Ibiza for a party, getting into a wonderful orgy, then flying back in the dead of the night and acing a university presentation within hours of hitting the tarmac. Sweet.

What led or inspired you to creating content online?

I've been/still am a stripper, escort, and sugar baby, which were all very fulfilling jobs; but I've had to put on a seriously different façade for each. I started out camming (under a different name) some years back because it was a nice, genuine way to connect and talk to people. I could chat to a worldwide audience and be my natural, goofy self within the confines of my room, making all the rainy days less lonely. I started more seriously creating content online after seeing how welcoming and helpful the community could be – it's really changed over the years.

I assume you enjoy creating content for your online audience; what is your favorite thing about it...creating the kind of content you do?

Well for once definitely not the editing process – I handle everything from start to finish! Seeing the reaction from my online audience definitely makes up for the process, though! I'll never feel more validated than when receiving a flattering message from a regular – I love you, regs!

What else do you want to pursue in life, for fun or as a career?

Look, my absolute dream would be to move to LA to join the porn industry, but I know that's difficult and probably impossible! My other impractical dream is to be a cowboy (an ethical one) – caused by the mixture of video games and living in crowded cities for too long. My boring career choice I tell everyone is to be a professor at a nice university. Hey, don't laugh – at least I could be the sexy professor.

What's one talent most people don't know you have?

Honestly...giving blowjobs (does this count as a secret talent if I've lost track of my number of hookups?). I've always been told this, without fail, and it's been written into a song (I kid you not). I think that's proof enough! (My other secret talent is proofreading essays :( )

Thank you so much for taking this time to share more about yourself. Any last words?

Support decriminalization of sex work in your area, respect sex workers and pay for your porn. It's next to godliness.

SHE'S SO FOXY!

Provided By: Miss Fox

MISS FOX dazzles in her images with her bouncy blonde hair and her piercing bluish grey eyes. It's difficult to miss this beauty's tattoos. They're all over but all tastefully placed, and designed with master craftsmanship. Miss Fox, a confessed former "anything cats" lover is a little mysterious online, and we think that's how she'd prefer it to be, giving just enough, leaving a lot on intrigue. We're delighted to have Miss Fox dive into some questions we had for her. This one is a real treat.

Tell us a little about yourself growing up; and what were your favorite TV shows, hobbies?

So I used to be obsessed with anything cats. Top Cat... Loved! Aristocats...Lovedddd. And I used to walk around pretending I was a cat til I started year 7...which was pretty embarrassing now I look back.. But I didn't care back then so you've got to admire that innocence haha! I also used to be pretty artistic and I would draw for days on end.. that was where my tattoo addiction must have started.. I even started piercing and tattooing myself at school which didn't go down well with my mum.. But I didn't care!

At what age was your first crush?

Ah I must have been about 8. I used to think Johnny Bravo off Cartoon Network was hot. God knows why I was a weird child

Looking back at your childhood, what's one thing you would tell you adolescent self?

Don't listen to the haters because they only end up unhappy.. Oh and don't party too hard aha

Through high school, what were you best known for?

Oh my well I'd say it would have been the weird girl who listened to weird "emo music" or the girl who pierced herself all the time. I was pretty bad for it I just wanted so much metal in my face back then.. Now I've taken most of my piercings out aha.

How were the boys with you in high school; were they at your mercy, or did they keep their distance?

Boys hated me. I was way too weird.. Now-a-days they message me saying that I've definitely got hot...But back then I was definitely not the girl boys wanted haha.. I can see why though I was a pretty odd child!

Tell us about your first sexual experience, and what did you discover about yourself?

I can remember watching my first porno. From then on I loved it.. I'd use my shitty Nintendo DS to look at dick pics (cringe) and then I started discovering the real thing which was like heaven aha.

What led or inspired you to creating content online?

I actually got dared to work at a strip club and really enjoyed it.. But then the travel was costing too much so I looked into online work and now I really enjoy the reactions I get when I do shows! ▶

THE SOCIAL MEDIA

SHARESOME IS KICKING ASS RIGHT NOW!

By: CamGirl Vixen Magazine

IN THE WAKE of Tumblr's recent purging of all things NSFW, a little known site, Sharesome.com, is making gains, taking over from where Tumblr left off. Tumblr was the perfect platform for 18+ content creators because of its extremely customizable platform, ease of use, and its once lenient rules when it came to NSFW content. To be honest, you could find almost any kind of porn vid there.

With Yahoo acquiring Tumblr a few years ago, they've since been working to censor any kind of adult content. It first started by simply hiding all nude content from public viewing, then pixelating and hiding nude images, and then, back in January of 2019, completely shut down and removed any and all kinds of adult content. This move caused a lot of amateur porn and adult content creators to really feel the pinch, as there has since been a huge backlash. But worry no more, and there's nothing to fear, Sharesome is here.

Sharesome boasts being the social media platform for adult content. The social connecting site is less than 5 years old and since the "death of Tumblr", sharesome has been fast acquiring users as the word gets out. They even prepared a special Tumblr import blog method for those who took swift action to survive the Tumblr purge. Sharesome essentially allows you to port your Tumblr blog directly over to its platform, so you will in an essence save your Tumblr content, now viewable on Sharesome.

Sharesome's takes design queues from the big social media platforms. It looks like a mixture of Instagram, Twitter and Tumblr, and it'd be really interesting to see how much customization capabilities they will end up giving their users. Some pages look pretty damn cool. You can also find some of your favorite cam girls and amateur models on the platform already. It allows you to post lengthy messages, images, and videos. What more could you want?

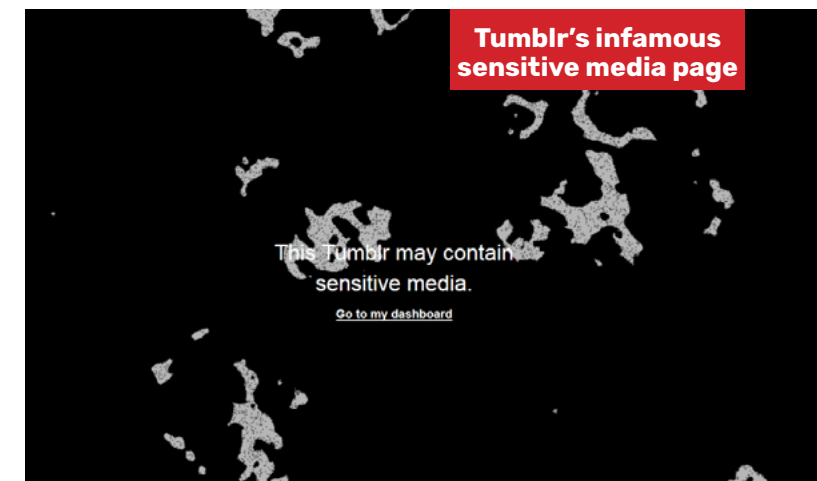

You want freedom to run wild and free Sharesome allows you to do that. They say it right on their About page for you to see. It says, "Sharesome is an adult social platform that helps you connect with your favourite content creators. Better yet, think of us as a community where your kinks are finally free to run wild. Here at Sharesome we try to create an environment where you are welcomed no matter what your fantasies are. It is free and will forever remain free."

Sharesome has a huge potential of becoming the most significant social platform in the amateur adult content space, and we're watching and moving as it goes along. If you haven't checked out Sharesome.com please do.

“ I ALWAYS FELT BARE WHEN I HAD NO TATTS AND NOW I FEEL MORE LIKE I'M GETTING TO THE TRUE ME THE MORE TATTS I GET! ”

You've told us you were quite artsy growing up. Do you still draw as much as you use to, and what did you draw most often?

I don't to be honest! I am more into photography now more than anything I just don't have time to draw these days! Mainly old school pin up girls.. I loved drawing tattoo designs all the time..

You have quite a bit of tattoos. Is this part of your artistic expression?

I guess so! I mean I just live the life of an inked girl if I'm honest. I always felt bare when I had no tats and now I feel more like I'm getting to the true me the more tats I get!

When did you get your first tatt. and how many do you have in total now?

Oh god, well I tattooed myself at 16 with a guitar string and Indian ink. It was awful I got it covered up as soon as I could! I have maybe 22 now? More to come I want to be covered!

You've expressed before your love for cats. Was Catwoman ever a fantasy character for you to dress up as? What do you think of her...is she a heroine or villain?

Oh yes I loved her. To be honest I still do. Leather and cats is the way forward! She's definitely a villain I love the bad girl vibes. Who wants a good girl .

You've overcome a lot to be the woman you are today. What were some lessons you learned as a person, now with the hard drugs and trouble all behind you?

Oh definitely! I have learnt alot about self control and I never really had my own personality growing up so it's made me really form my own ideas and dreams in life.

Talk to us about the dare you got about working at a strip club. We're curious how the whole thing went down.

I mean I'm back at the club now because I missed it so it was definitely a good dare. I wasn't expecting to like it as much as I did and now it's something I want to master. I mean the idea of subduction is so sexy!

Is there anything you would like to change about yourself physically or otherwise, and why?

Yes! I want sooo much work done I actually hate my face it's a shame but I guess no ones ever happy with what they have, right?

FUN FACTS

If money was no issue, what would you do with your time, and where would you travel to?

I would travel the world. I want to see the mysterious wonders of the world and go to the more odd tourist attractions like the suicide forest in Japan. It intrueges me so much.

Favorite place you've traveled to so far:

Oooo Norwich. I love it so much... Its just so crazy and everyone is weird. I feel like I fit in well.

Weirdest hook up you've had with someone:

I don't really hook up with people anymore...I used to. But it's not my thing anymore.

Your guilty pleasure(s):

I love to pig out. Unhealthy food is my life most of the time especially Taco Bell. I've eaten in 7 days on a row before I'm terrible. I believe I have such an addictive personality. If I like something I overdo it so bad.

Do you consider yourself a clean freak, a messy mess, or somewhere in between the two:

I'm super messy. My house is always so unorganised. I'm known for it. I just never have time to put things away after I use them. Or I'm just lazy. Not sure which.

Your silliest fear:

People. For the amount of people I talk to daily you'd never expect it, but people terrify me I am so bad with small talk. I like being alone.

Worst pickup line you've ever heard:

Oh my... "wanna sit down. Let me clean your seat" *wipes face*... Ughhhh

Your life right now in 3 words:

So... Fucking.... Hectic.

Best relationship advice:

Just dont babe...Its never worth the heartbreak. Honestly

QUICK Q&AS

Tell us a little about yourself growing up; and What were your favorite TV shows, hobbies?

Growing up, I really enjoyed art. I am also a professional illustrator I can illustrate almost anything including portraits of faces. I love drawing the human body, flowers, animals and fashion designs. I also love nail art, I'd like to become a licensed nail tech one day.

What led or inspired you to creating content online?

I started out as a fashion blogger and later discovered cam modeling. I have always been confident in my body and I have great advertising and business skills so I knew that this would be a great job for me.

If money was not an issue, describe your ideal lifestyle?

I'm living my ideal lifestyle! Fortunately, I am able to travel where ever I want whenever I want and spoil myself and loved ones with the job I do and I am very grateful for that.

When you have time to yourself, what are some of your hobbies and things you like to do?

I'm more of a homebody but I do like partying once in a while. I love L.A. nightlife, but I also like staying home relaxing and drinking tea. Life is all about balance.
