LIVING MY LIFE AS AN EXPERIMENT

Q&A: PIPER BLUSH / CAMGIRL VIXEN MAG

PIPER BLUSH, is an absolute darling. Don't take my word for it. She'll prove it in our exclusive feature with the buxom French-Canadian beauty. She opens up about authoring her first book "Why Submissive Women Are Happier", a book redefining the conversation on fulfillment.

Her journey began with "The Piper Blush Experiment" on YouTube in July 2015, where her viral hit "Sports Bra vs. No Bra: Jump Rope Test" catapulted her into the limelight. Using her newfound fame, Piper launched PiperBlush.com, a provocative platform where she unapologetically shares her erotic self. Now, she's channeling all her experiences into her book, aiming to transform women's lives with her bold perspective on happiness.

In all honesty, Piper dazzles like a star in the night sky when she stands against most other influencers; a true testament to her unique blend of playful charm, sensual sophistication, and beauty. It's all about Piper's world! A place where elegance meets edge and every moment is a flirtatious wink. Let's dive in.

SUBMISSIVE BEAUTY
PIPER BLUSH

Can you take us back to your early years? Where did you grow up, and how did it shape who you are today?

I grew up in the province of Quebec, which is why I have such a distinctive accent that people often notice right away. It's a part of me, and quite frankly I like it. It makes me most recognizable. My roots in Quebec have given me a unique perspective, blending the richness of French culture with a North American flair. This accent is a piece of my identity that will always stay with me. Fun fact—Céline Dion is from Quebec too!

What inspired you to start your career in social media, and fashion? Was there a particular moment or person who influenced your decision?

The Piper Blush Experiment started as just that—an experiment. I was curious about the power of social media. There wasn't a single person who influenced me, but rather the realization that social media was this incredible tool for reaching people, sharing ideas, and building a community. I saw it as the perfect tool to drive The Piper Blush Experiment.

How did you initially break into the world of content creation? What were some of the challenges you faced when starting out?

I first broke into content creation by uploading my daily videos to YouTube, as a part of The Piper Blush Experiment. Every day, I'd film something new and put it out there, not really knowing what to expect. It was a mix of excitement and curiosity that kept me going. The challenges were real—figuring out the technical side of things, dealing with the pressure to constantly create, and navigating the ups and downs of trying to grow an audience. But I kept at it, and slowly, those daily videos started gaining traction, which was a thrilling experience.

EXPLORING ADULT CONTENT CAREER

What was your first big break that really put you on the map as an influencer? How did it feel to reach that milestone?

My first big break was going viral on YouTube, with the video Sports Bra Vs No Bra: Jump Rope Test. It was surreal, honestly. But a big part of The Piper Blush Experiment.

Can you describe a typical day in your life when you're creating content? What does your creative process look like?

A typical day for me is all about creating content, connecting with my fans, and working on my book, Why

Submissive Women Are Happier. My day starts with brainstorming. Then, it's onto the content itself, whether that means filming a video or setting up a photoshoot. I engage with my community, reading comments, chat with fans, and plan what comes next. After this, I spend the rest of the day writing chapters for my book.

How do you stay inspired and keep your content fresh and engaging? Are there any particular sources of inspiration or routines that help you?

I stay inspired by creating content as often as I can, keeping that creative momentum going. I also draw inspiration from staying in tune with what's happening in the world—whether it's the latest news or trends on the internet. Watching how things evolve around me sparks new ideas and keeps my content fresh and engaging.

What motivated you to venture into the world of adult content? Was there a defining moment or influence that led you to this path?

I approached it all as part of The Piper Blush Experiment, a way to see how people would react and how it would change me. The motivation stemmed from a curiosity to explore and express my sensuality in a genuine way. There wasn't a single defining moment, but rather a gradual realization that adult content could be a powerful platform for self-expression. It was about experimenting with my narrative, embracing every part of who I am, and seeing how it would impact both me and my audience, all without shame or fear of judgment.

How did you get started in the amateur adult content industry? Can you share any initial challenges or surprises you encountered?

I got started in the amateur adult content industry as part of an experiment to see how it would work for me. As, I met someone who was already involved in it, which provided valuable insights and inspiration. The initial challenges included navigating the technical aspects of content creation and dealing with the industry's stigma.

PERSONAL VIEWS & INDUSTRY INSIGHT

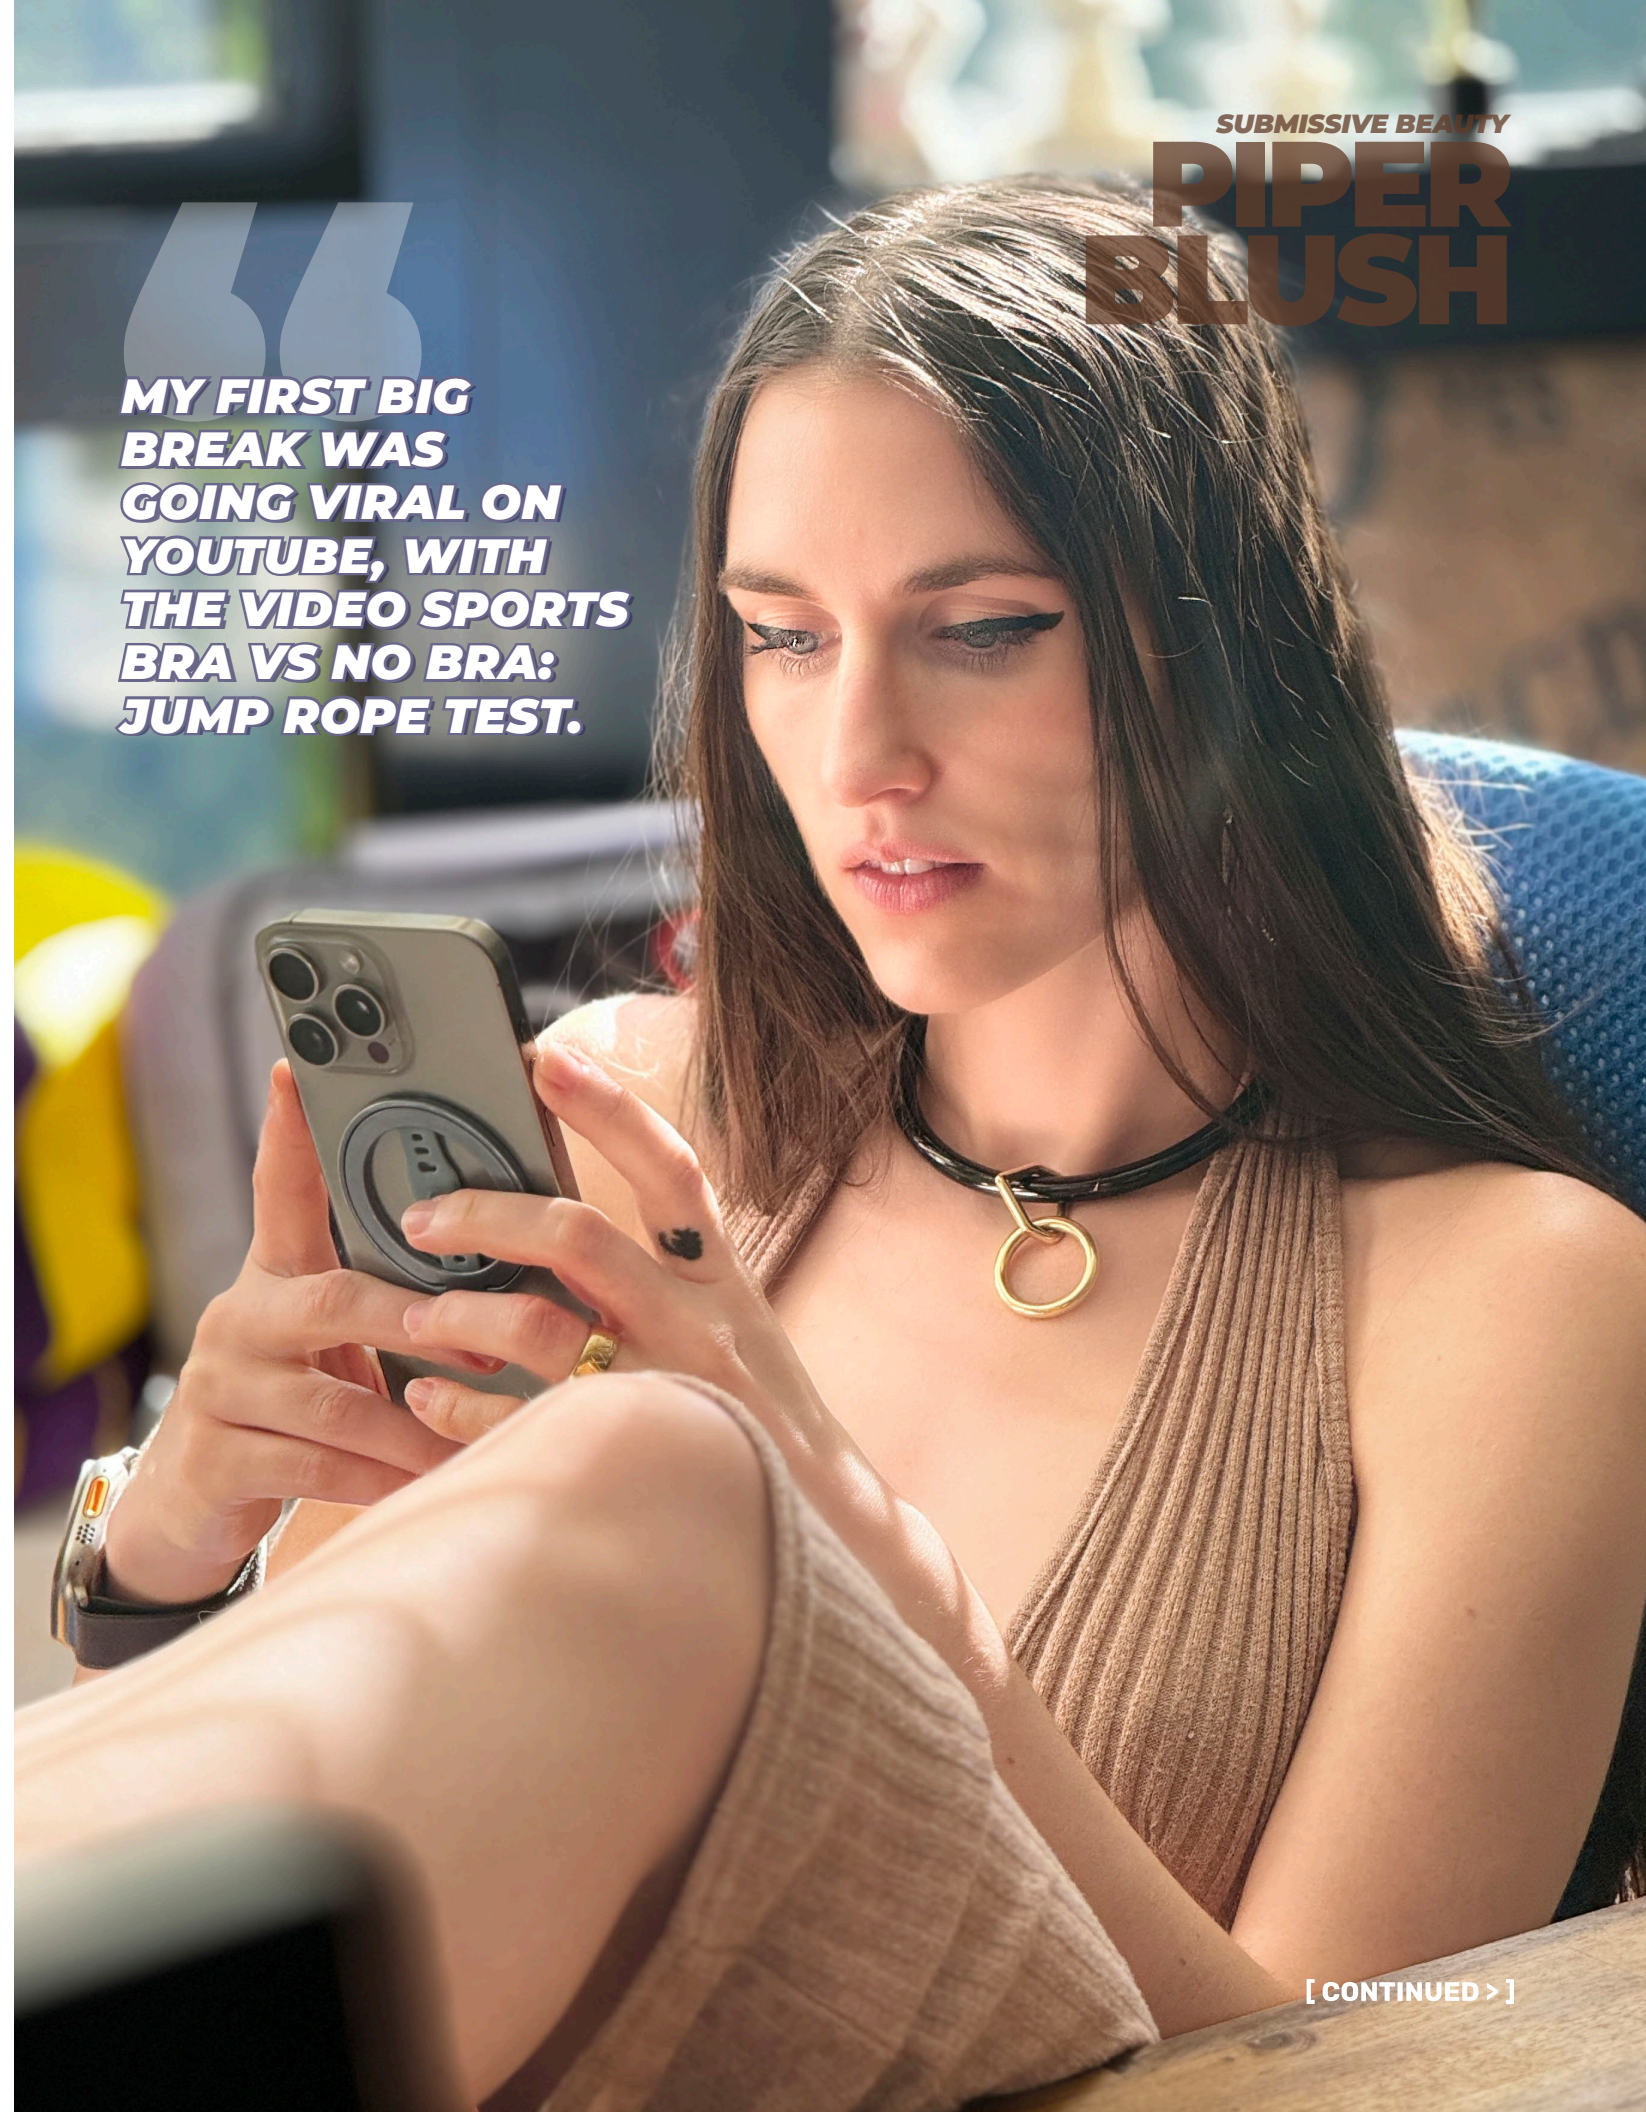

How do you manage to keep a balance between your professional work in adult content and your public persona as a social media influencer?

I've faced plenty of challenges and misconceptions from the public and media regarding my involvement in adult content. The stereotypes are very real. I address these by being open and honest about my work. Also, by sharing my experiences and experiments with the world.

What are your thoughts on the evolving perceptions of adult content and the stigma that sometimes surrounds it? How do you contribute to changing these perceptions?

I see the evolution of adult content much like the journey tattoos have taken in North America. Just a few decades ago, having visible tattoos could cost you a corporate job, but now they're widely accepted—even celebrated. OnlyFans has done something similar for adult content, making it more accessible as a side hustle and helping to normalize it. We're in the early stages of this shift, but I believe that in a few more decades, adult content creators will be as accepted as tattooed professionals are today. My contribution? I am uniquely myself and hope I can inspire others to do the same.

How do you stay motivated and inspired in a field that can be challenging and demanding? Are there particular strategies or practices that help you?

As part of The Piper Blush Experiment, I discovered that free porn sites were siphoning off content from independent creators, which was a tough realization. But instead of letting it get me down, I saw it as an opportunity to pivot. After navigating the challenges, I transitioned into a new phase where I shifted my focus from producing pornography to creating softcore content. This change not only kept me motivated but also inspired me to explore new creative avenues. Staying adaptable and open to evolution is key—when faced with roadblocks, I find new paths that align with my vision and keep me moving forward.

THOUGHTS ON SEX, LOVE, AND RELATIONSHIPS

You often share a sense of sensuality in your posts.

How do you balance expressing your sensual side while maintaining professionalism?

As an artist, there's no perfect balance. I wish I could express myself freely, but depending on the platforms I use, there's always a level of censorship. So, I would say that I mostly follow the community guidelines—that's the balance I maintain.

What are your thoughts on the intersection of beauty, confidence, and sexuality? How do you embrace and express these aspects of yourself?

I am submissive to a Master. My Master taught me to embrace my beauty, build confidence, and express my sexuality in a way that suits me. I've always wanted to be a muse, and I believe that submissive women are happier.

How do you approach relationships and love in your personal life? Are there any key values or principles that guide you?

My personal life is very much intertwined with my online life. Everything I do is directed toward my goal of documenting my experiments and getting my book published. My key values and principles are to find yourself and a Master who will help you become a better human.

FUTURE PLANS

What exciting projects or collaborations do you have lined up for the future? Are there any specific goals or dreams you're working towards?

Right now, I'm focused on writing my book, Why Submissive Women Are Happier. It's a project that's really close to my heart, and I'm excited to finally share my discoveries with the world.

How do you envision your career evolving over the next few years? Are there any new areas or industries you're interested in exploring?

I've always been a writer, whether it's been documenting my journey, crafting newsletters, or diving into copywriting. As I see myself moving more towards being an author, this natural inclination is only growing stronger. After publishing Why Submissive Women Are Happier, I already have ideas for my next book, all based on my experiments and experiences. While content creation will always be a part of me, I'm eager to explore new horizons and see how I can continue to grow and evolve as both an artist and a person.

How do you plan to continue growing your influence and staying relevant in the ever-changing landscape of social media?

I believe that if I keep doing what I love and stay true to myself, I'll find ways to stay relevant. Social media is always changing, but the key is to adapt without losing your core identity. I'm always learning, experimenting, and finding new ways to connect with my audience, which keeps things fresh and exciting.

Hi, CamGirl Vixen Magazine. The pleasure is all mine. Thank you for having me. My mongolian heritage is something I'm incredibly proud of. Our heritage is so full of unique traditions and values that i cherish and enjoy sharing.

We'll get to the other post further down :) Can you share with us how you first became interested in the adult entertainment industry?

From a young age, I've always been comfortable with my sexuality and have embraced it fully. As soon as I came of age, diving into an exciting entertainment industry felt like second nature to me.

I was drawn to webcamming because it offered a safe way to express myself and connect with fans live.

My first major mainstream role I got was with VIXEN and I was the first Asian female performer for BLACKED.

It means so much to me even to this day, because my scene was the most viewed scene on the Blacked platforms.

Have you gotten a chance to shoot work with Vixen so far this year, or is there something coming up?

I'm looking forward to working with them again but I have not had the opportunity to work with them yet.

We saw that you were listed as co-director in an EnVulva scene called "The Sequel" that features yourself, Angelina Moon and Kane Deax. What was it like working in a co-director role as well as a performer on screen?

I loved working with Kane Deax. I co-directed and worked behind the camera.

Paying attention to judgment or criticism is a waste of energy and I don't take it personally.

How do you prioritize sexual wellness, including physical and emotional health, in your life?

INTRODUCING
NICOLS

The incredible Baby Nicols. Great to have you here with us. Congrats on what seems to be a thriving year. How has 2024 really been treating you?

Hi. Thanks so much for the interview. My 2024 so far is being great. I can't complain. I've traveled a lot and I'm really happy.

Can you share with us how you first became interested in the adult entertainment industry?

I became interested in the adult entertainment when I friend that I had back in the time. We used to have sex and he discovered that I liked to be recorded. So we record ourselves for fun to see how we look and then we deleted the videos after we watched. So I met another friend he used to help porn star doing promo on Twitter and he told me I could be really good porn star.

How do friends and family members react to your career choice? What drives you to keep going?

My family and friends at the beginning were shocked of course because they never expected this from me. I used to be a lit of introvert girl. Never talked about sex or something like that. In my home country it was the gossip of the month of course. But then they were like OK whatever. Now they don't really care about my job or don't ask much about it. What drives me to keep going is being grateful of the freedom this job allows me to have.

Are there any figures within the industry who have inspired or influenced your career?

Yes. Emma Hix. I'm a big fan of her career, so I hope I can keep growing as much as her.

We featured the amazing Ema Karter in a previous issue, and you've recently started collaborating with her a bit more. Tell us a little bit about that relationship and the kinds of collaborations we can expect to see.

Yes Ema and I have a beautiful relationship. We met last year and immediately connected. We have done collabs with Jonny Sins and Troy Francisco and they turned out really good; we are a good team when we're together. I love her, she's so kind and supportive.

There is a post on your X (formerly Twitter) account with the one and only GirthMaster. How did that collab come about, and what was the experience like for you?

I first met Girthmasterr during his European trip. He came to Barcelona where I live, and then the magic happened. One of my favorite collabs so far. The experience was amazing; at the beginning I was in shock I didn't imagine that thing under his pants was real. But the video turned out being one of my favorites

What are some of the biggest misconceptions people have about your line of work?

I think, thinking that all sex workers are whores, and that we don't have education. A lot of sex workers are actually professionals and they just decided to chose this career because is what made them happy.

How do you handle judgment or criticism from those who may not understand your career choice?

I have to admit is difficult because I'm very sensitive and I wish everyone could spend at least one minute with me to really get to know how I am and that my job is doesn't define me. Learn who I am as a person before criticizing me. But I choose to ignore those criticism, at the end of the day is my life that I am living and people's opinion shouldn't matter as long what I'm doing is making me happy and making me achieve my goals.

MY EMOTIONAL

How would you describe your on-screen persona versus your everyday self?

I definitely think my on-screen persona is different than who I am as a person. Baby Nicols is fearless, naughty, charismatic, love making people horny and enjoy having all the attention for herself. My everyday self is just a normal girl with her dog that is shy, loves privacy and is focused on her personal growth and spending time with friends.

How do you maintain a work-life balance in an industry that demands so much of your personal life?

It is difficult because often people think this job is so easy, but it is actually not. What I do is I work like crazy for 3 months and make as much content as possible so I can rest 1-2 months from doing collabs, and then I can just focus on editing and posting and talking with my fans. I have a schedule like everybody else so I can be proactive, and also know when to take a break from the screens.

How do you interact with your fans, and what impact do they have on your career decisions?

I interact with my fans everyday mostly on my OnlyFans. Sometimes I interact with them on X but I try to stick to one platform so my life can be easier, and I don't get overwhelmed. The impact that my fans have on my career is that they make me very grateful and make me want to keep doing it. I feel very happy that out of a million girls they chose to consume my content and thanks to that a lot of my dreams have come true. I like pleasing my fans by surprising them with collabs they asked me about or using certain clothes that I know they enjoy so much.

Can you recall a particularly touching or memorable interaction with a fan that has stuck with you?

Yes, one fan recognized me in a boat that I was on from Ibiza to Barcelona. That day wasn't a good day for me; I was so stressed, and this guy approached me. He didn't want to bother me and he wrote a note for me, the note was very sweet and he was so kind and respectful that I felt so happy having a fan as sweet as him.

How do you engage with your fans on social media, and how has their support influenced your career?

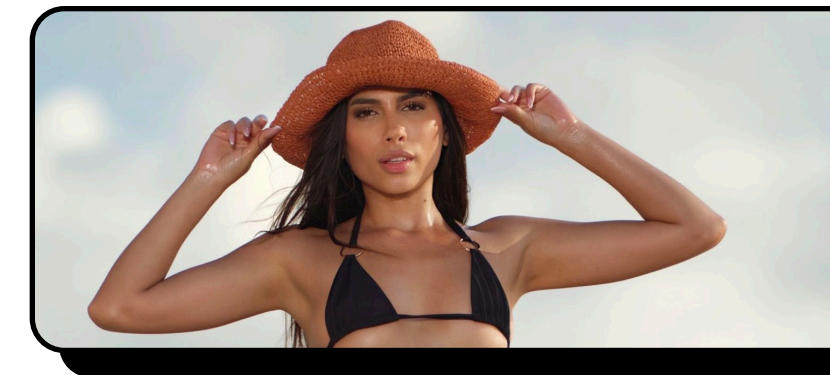

I engage with them mostly on X and through TikTok live. I have very sweet fans, I'm grateful for their support, they are the reason my career has grown so much. Without fans I wouldn't be where I am today.

How has your perspective on relationships and intimacy evolved since entering the industry?

I think I have learned to free myself from the guilt of feeling bad for enjoying sex. I grew up with a fairly closed mentality where if you liked sex and talked about it, it was frowned upon. Now I am a much more confident woman, not afraid to say what I like and open to trying new experiences that I find interesting.

How has your perspective on relationships and intimacy changed since you started your career in adult entertainment?

Well, I think that since I entered the industry my perspective has changed a lot in relation to not being jealous of my partners if they want to have sex with other people. My mind is much more open and I can understand that many times sex is only for enjoyment and has nothing to do with feelings.

How do you prioritize sexual wellness, including physical and emotional health, in your life?

My emotional and physical health are my number one priority and fundamental to being able to continue doing this job. I like to listen to my body and respect when I feel like I need to take a break and take time for myself. I take great care that my blood tests are always up to date. I have annual checkups and I really like doing psychological therapy regularly to be able to work on my emotions, and make sure that whatever I'm doing is because it really comes from me and it's what I want to do.

Beyond your career, what brings you the most joy and fulfillment in life?

What brings me the most joy and satisfaction are the small, beautiful moments I experience every day with the people I love: a walk on the beach with my dog, going out for coffee with a friend, and having sleepovers at my house on a Sunday. I also get a lot of joy and satisfaction from all the personal growth I have had. I like to work on myself as a person and on peace of mind.

HAPPINESS BEHIND THE FAME

WHO'S LIVING A HAPPIER LIFE – HOLLYWOOD CELEBS OR PORN STARS?

WORDS: CAMGIRL VIXEN MAG

IN THE GLITZY WORLD OF ENTERTAINMENT, two fascinating worlds stand out: the dazzling lives of Hollywood celebrities and the often-overlooked universe of adult film stars. Both groups experience fame and public scrutiny, but their daily realities couldn't be more different. Hollywood stars are frequently paraded as the pinnacle of success, with their red-carpet smiles and sparkling glamour. Meanwhile, adult film stars, often misunderstood, live in a different kind of spotlight. So, which of these two worlds breeds more happiness? In this article, we'll dive into the intriguing question of whether porn stars lead happier lives than their Hollywood counterparts, shedding light on these contrasting lifestyles and their impact on well-being.

The entertainment industry is often synonymous with glitz, glamour, and fame. But behind the dazzling façade lies a world full of unique pressures and challenges. This article delves into an intriguing question: do pornstars lead happier lives than their Hollywood counterparts? We'll break down the complexities, drawing on expert insights and real-life experiences to uncover the truth.

HOLLYWOOD'S PRESSION COOKER

Hollywood celebrities are constantly under the microscope. The spotlight that makes them famous can also amplify stress and anxiety. Dr. Jane Smith, a psychologist specializing in celebrity mental health, explains, "The relentless scrutiny and the need to maintain a polished public image create immense pressure. Many celebrities face unrealistic expectations from both the media and the public, which can lead to significant stress."

Consider the case of Britney Spears, whose personal struggles were thrust into the limelight, illustrating how fame can sometimes lead to an erosion of privacy and well-being. The constant attention and the pressure to live up to a manufactured image can weigh heavily on Hollywood stars, impacting their overall happiness.

PORN STARS' PRIVACY ADVANTAGE

In contrast, adult film stars often operate under pseudonyms, which can offer a layer of privacy. Dr. Alex Johnson, a sociologist specializing in the adult industry, points out, "The use of stage names allows performers to create a clear boundary between their personal and professional lives. This separation can foster a greater sense of control and privacy, which can be beneficial for mental well-being."

Take Jenna Jameson, for example. Her pseudonym not only provides a buffer from public scrutiny but also allows her to navigate the adult industry on her own terms. This level of anonymity can help adult film stars maintain a more balanced personal life, potentially leading to greater happiness.

AUTONOMY & JOB SATISFACTION

One of the notable differences between Hollywood actors and adult film stars is the level of control they have over their careers. Hollywood actors often rely on casting agents and directors, which can leave them feeling like cogs in a machine. Adult performers, on the other hand, usually have more say in their work.

Eva, an adult film actress, shares, "We have significant control over our schedules and the content we create. This autonomy often leads to a stronger sense of empowerment and job satisfaction." This level of control can translate into a more fulfilling and balanced professional life, contributing to overall happiness.

COMMUNITY AND SUPPORT

The adult film industry is also known for its tight-knit communities. Dr. Sarah Williams, a researcher in sexuality studies, highlights the importance of these networks: "Many performers find strong support systems within the adult industry. This sense of community can play a crucial role in mental and emotional well-being."

Unlike the often solitary experiences of Hollywood celebrities, adult film stars frequently benefit from supportive networks and camaraderie, which can be a significant factor in their overall happiness.

"JENNA JAMESON'S PSEUDONYM PROVIDES A BUFFER FROM PUBLIC SCRUTINY, ALLOWING HER TO NAVIGATE THE ADULT INDUSTRY ON HER OWN TERMS."

THE COMPLEXITY OF HAPPINESS

In the end, happiness is a deeply personal and wildly multifaceted concept. Dr. Mark Davis, a psychologist specializing in well-being, reminds us, "Happiness is influenced by various factors, including personal values, relationships, and coping mechanisms. Comparing the happiness of pornstars and Hollywood celebrities can be complex because it hinges on individual experiences and perspectives."

THE WRAP UP

While we've explored some key differences between the lives of pornstars and Hollywood celebrities, it's crucial to remember that happiness is subjective and varies from person to person. Both worlds have their unique challenges and rewards, and the journey to happiness is as diverse as the individuals who pursue it.

Understanding these complexities helps illuminate the various paths to fulfillment in the world of entertainment, offering a richer perspective on what it means to lead a happy life.

AN EXTENSIVE REVIEW OF SPUN!

THE ULTIMATE GIRL ON GIRL FEATURE

WORDS: CAMGIRL VIXEN MAG

CASEY CALVERT'S DIRECTORIAL FEATURE SIZZLES WITH EMOTION, FUN, AND SEXUAL HIGHS, LEAVING LITTLE TO DESIRE. THIS DRAMA PACKED STORY CARRIES AN ECLECTIC ENSEMBLE WHO ALL DELIVER UNIQUE ATTRIBUTES TO SPUN!

Adult Time consistently produces top-shelf work, where sometimes they hit it out the park, and sometimes they miss the mark. And sometimes, they give you just enough to make it just right. Spun, the latest GirlsWay feature, is one of the times that they got it just right.

The 132 minute feature is split into two parts. Part one being 67 minutes and 21 seconds, while part two is slightly shorter at 64 minutes and 13 seconds in length. Spun delivers well on several fronts, all of which we will explore shortly. From storyline, to camera work, the cast, sex, and more, we'll give you our unfiltered thoughts about Adult Time's latest all-girls fuck fest.

PART ONE

Described by the features director, the incomparable Casey Calvert, as a Y2K-inspired dramedy, Spun gives thee viewers an eye-full of girl-girl action right from the start. Part one opens with Maggie, played by the lovely Chanel Camryn and Jemma, played by the gorgeous Alexis Tae, are seen in Maggie's bedroom, discussing her upcoming birthday sleepover party. Jemma, Maggie's friend and secret fuckbuddy, quizzes Maggie about this party, getting the tea on the guests. Maggie admits that Morgan, her secret crush, portrayed by the ever so sexy Freya Parker, will be one of the guests attending her sleepover. In the discourse you can tell that Maggie is in denial about her crush, and directs her energy to the slim figured beauty in front of her, Jemma.

SEX SCENE #1: MAGGIE AND JEMMA IN SEXY GIRL GIRL ACTION

Less than three minutes in, Maggie and Jemma start making out. The two move in sync, making for a sensual, yet playful display. Alexis Tae takes on her role as Jemma with ease, taking the lead as she began caressing and sucking on Maggie's tits. Maggie soon returns the favor and the to gals gets things heated up rather quickly. I absolutely loved this opening sex scene. It was steamy, sexy, and perfectly naughty. You got more than enough her lip gloss. This here sets up for Maggie's solo masturbation scene. Thinking about the sentimental meaning of the lip gloss she went to find, Maggie finds herself fantasizing about what it would be like to finally fuck the love of her life, Morgan.

MAGGIE'S SOLO MASTURBATION

The camera drops to show Maggie on the floor sitting on a pile of laundry. She spreads her legs and starts rubbing her pussy and grabbing her little breasts. She applies more lip gloss and goes to town in her tight twat. The camera work was dead on, giving a good flow of close-up and pull-away shots, drawing you right into the action.

VIRGINIA AND LEA FUCK

The scene abruptly shifts to Lea and Virginia. They two apparently knew each other from before, and Virginia admits that Lea has grown up to be quite the hottie. The two gaze at each other for a bit. Their passions high, both women move in for the kiss. Not too long after, the both remove their pants, and engage in a passionate make-out session. Lulu, a fan favorite, captures the essence of her character Lea quite well. Where as Electra takes on a more cheeky playful role as Virginia. Lea is the first to spread her legs as Virginia goes to town eating and kissing Lea's tight, peach fuzz pussy. Fingering and more, Virginia makes sure to take full advantage of the moment.

Lea juxtaposed to Virginia is an interesting dynamic, where Lea carries a petite frame, while Virginia is much more voluptuous and curvy than her Asian fuck partner. Though it wasn't the best sex scene of Spun, Lulu and Electra's performance of Lea and Virginia, respectively, was certainly an enjoyable scene, as the two seemed to be having fun. With an intense tribbing session at the end of the scene, Virginia orgasms and concludes with a final make-out session with Lea.

A game of spin the bottle follows, where Kate (Maya Woulfe), finally gets her turn to make kiss Morgan, right in front of Maggie. Maggie looks on with sadness and annoyance. The doorbell rings and Maggie rushes to the door to leave the unbearable sight. She opens the door and it's the Pizza delivery person, played by none other than the multi-award winning film and creative director, Bree Mills. This concluded part one of Spun.

time to witness careful fingering, pussy eating, face sitting and 69, and titty sucking. Alexis' ass is incredible and she uses her subtle smooth moves to bring her character Jemma to live in this fuck-tastic display. Chanel Camryn is like the perfect sub here. Playing the emotionally charged Maggie, Chanel takes every bit of what Alexis dishes in this thrilling gir-girl fiesta. The scene finishes with Maggie and Jemma tribbing the fuck out of each other, and cools things off with kisses and titty rubs.

The story resumes with Maggie and Jemma visibly preparing for the soon coming birthday party. Virginia, portrayed by Electra Rayne, enters the scene fully clothed, hiding her killer curves underneath a blue and black plaid shirt and blue jeans pants. Soon after that, as Jemma leaves Maggie for the evening, Jemma meets Lea (Lulu Chu) and Morgan (Freya Parker) at the door. Kate (Maya Woulfe) also shows up and it's soon revealed she is Morgan's girlfriend. Maggie of course takes this to heart, leaves the room and pretends to go looking for

PART TWO

Maggie (Chanel Camryn) is having a birthday party to reunite with her old high school friends Lea (Lulu Chu), Rachel (Liz Jordan), and Morgan (Freya Parker), but all is not well. Maggie is secretly a lesbian with feelings for Morgan, but Morgan unexpectedly brought an extra guest to the party: her new girlfriend, Kate (Maya Woulfe).

Thankfully, Maggie's mood improves a bit when her parents, Drea (Dana Vespoli) and Claire (Lauren Phillips), arrive with a birthday cake. Maggie's friends, parents, and her older sibling Virginia (Electra Rayne) all sing happy birthday to her. After that, Drea and Claire leave for their room, telling the girls to have fun. The girls happily eat cake... except for Kate, who is standoffish and clearly feels like she doesn't belong here. Rachel looks unimpressed with Kate's attitude, and finds an excuse to sneak off.

Rachel stumbles across Drea and Claire making out in their room, about to have sex with a strap-on. Rachel is flustered but sees an opportunity, confessing to them that her girlfriend thinks she's boring in bed. It's clear that Rachel wants Drea and Claire to teach her how to be more adventurous in the bedroom, so they invite Rachel to join them for a threesome.

Meanwhile, the party becomes increasingly tense, including Kate continuing to feel left out, and Maggie and Morgan getting into an argument. Will Maggie's true feelings ever come to light? What will Morgan do? Be sure to watch to find out how the party concludes... and who ends up having sex!

THE FINAL SEX SCENE

After Morgan's girlfriend, Kate, gets upset and leaves because of Maggie's recent revelation of being gay, eventually being found out, and also having a thing for Morgan, an opportunity for Morgan and Maggie to reconcile their feelings for each other. Maggie leaves the room to go outside, and peers through the gate, as she watched Morgan and Kate. A car pulls up, Kate enters, and then drives off. Maggie then retreats to the backyard where Morgan meets her with a blanket. The two talk for a moment, before going back inside.

The final sex scene opens with Maggie and Morgan kissing and making out on the bed. The two gaze lustfully in each other's eyes. Morgan removes Maggie's glasses, and the make out session intensifies. The two wasted no time removing each other's clothes, kissing, caressing, and sucking on each other's tits.

The sexual tension and chemistry between Morgan (Freya Parker) and Maggie (Chanel Camryn) is undeniable. Both women have an incredible physique and played off each others assets with ease. From pussy eating, to the well-paced, sharp, intense breathing, Spun turned the heat up with this girl-on-girl scene. With her beautiful ass well positioned in the frame, Morgan seemed to pay close attention to her every move as she fingered and eat out Maggie's pussy. Maggie screams out in sheer delight and ecstasy as Morgan went to work on her lovely, tight, juicy twat. Maggie gets set to return the favor, and Morgan leans back, spreads her legs, and gets set to receive the long awaited pleasuring.

Though there was no use of any third-party toys or props, or tribbing for that matter, the scene really delivered, using the sexual tension between the two actors. Pussy eating and playing with each others boobs dominated most of the sex scene. Movements were subtle, light, and intentional. This made the viewer feel every bit of the action. Again, excellent camera work with the close up views.

THE WRAP UP

The final couple minutes has Virginia (Electra Rayne) walking through the kitchen in short shorts, showing off her exquisite ass and physically alluring curves. Lea (Lulu Chu), Drea (Dana Vespoli), and Claire (Lauren Phillips) all in scene. As Virginia passes Maggie's bedroom, she gently pushes the door open, and resting there are the two lovers, finally together.

Overall, Spun is a well-crafted film that delivers on all fronts. The storyline, camera work, cast, and sex scenes are all top-notch. If you're in the mood for a Y2K-inspired dramedy with plenty of girl-on-girl action, then Spun is the perfect choice for you."
