Editor's Message

It's been a long road to issue 5, but we are finally here.

We've prepared an absolutely exciting issue for you, with 2 main features. Those being on the topics of Cosplay, and its influence on pop culture and porn, and squirting, and our fascination of it and the wet and wild nature of it all. We've dug deeper than usual to bring these two features and can't wait to hear your remarks about what you've learned.

We must also thank all the gorgeously wonderful models that are a part of our Q & As. We've got the petite busty babe, Chrissy LeBlanc who admits to being a gusher when she squirts. Then there's the lovely Helena Aveira, a Mexican camgirl who is an architect and is one hell of a cam performer. Gem Stoned makes an appearance with us (finally), and talks about her special spiritual and squirting abilities. The fetish lifestyle hottie Brandi Nyx joins us again for a candid chat about her squirting adventures. And lastly, we've got the gorgeous TokkiHeartsYou, a stylish Korean camgirl and clips creator that is big time into cosplay.

In these challenging times, where the world is riddled with the reality of COVID-19, we encourage everyone of you to stay safe and practice common sense habits that will minimize the chances of you getting sick. Unfortunately many around the world are already ill from the virus, and even worse, many have also died. Our thoughts and prayers are with the peoples and families who have someone who have been directly afflicted by passing loved ones.

We hope you enjoy issue 5 as much as we enjoyed making it. Be sure to follow all the models featured on social media. And if you wish to get a print copy of CamGirl Vixen Magazine, visit our website and click on the get print copy button to order yours today.

Q&A: Helena Aveira EDITED BY: Camgirl Vixen Mag

GRADUATED COLLEGE, I'm an architect. I've done some modeling before. I have always loved animals I wanted to be a vet when I was a kid. And I have always been into kinky stuff. I love my body although I would like to exercise a bit more. I am both into boys and girls and I've always wanted to experiment more when it comes to my sexuality.

My boyfriend supports me in everything I do and he is my manager at the moment. I'm looking forward on whatever comes from it, I would like to make some one on the side with this so I can travel and start a business, also I would like to donate it to charity.

I’VE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE INVOLVED IN THE ADULT INDUSTRY”

Welcome Gem, nice to have you here to chat with us for a little. Let’s just jump right in to it.

In high school, what did you want to pursue as a career at that time?

Playboy bunny and Hugh Hefner’s girlfriend, I’ve always wanted to be involved in the adult industry.

What about college, what was that experience like for you and share one stand out moment you remember clearly?

College was a trip and mostly a blur. I was ‘that crazy SGA chick’ that was always introducing my fellow SGA members and other friends to things like gas mask bongos, psychedelics and ridiculously strong jello shots. Some things that stand out clearly to me are the events I hosted for the school through my job as a student ambassador & SGA official, like giant paint/foam parties, Job fairs & a TWLOHA (to write love on her arms) suicide awareness event where I built a giant ball pit and a compliment booth. I’d say the most vivid memory though would be fucking the SGA president with the vice president (his girlfriend) was in the other room at an SGA end of the semester party.

Tell us about your first sexual experience, and what did you discover about yourself?

I masturbated and learned I could squirt and easily have multiple orgasms. I spent the whole rest of that day exploring my body.

What led or inspired you to creating content online?

I discovered Manyvids after starting to cam and it was off from there. I’ve always enjoyed creating content and filming myself while I masturbate always turns me on so to be able to make money while doing something I enjoyed so much was obviously very enticing.

I assume you enjoy creating content for your online audience; what is your favorite thing about it...creating the kind of content you do?

Getting to explore different kinks and fetishes is really fun for me, I’ve learned a lot about myself and the different avenues of this industry in the past 21 months. I also really enjoy being able to bring someone’s fantasies to life through customs.

What else do you want to pursue in life, for fun or as a career?

I want to finish my psychology degree and open a healing center that uses a combination of traditional psychology and holistic healing methods to help people heal and recover from trauma.

Of all the things you’ve done in your life, what are you most excited about, or most proud of?

My sobriety. It’s taken years of hard work and dedication to get to where I am in my sobriety journey today and I’m so grateful for all the growth and opportunities that has come from it.

As you share your content, what’s the most common feedback you get from your audience?

Amazement in how wet and creamy my pussy gets and how many times i can squirt in a row is always the reaction i get.

What’s one talent most people don’t know you have?

I’m a natural born psychic medium so I can quickly and accurately connect for readings, healings or mediumship sessions.

What’s one thing you must do before you take your last breath?

Fuck around the world in a hot air balloon.

ALL OVER THE WORLD, faithful fans on superheroes, comic books, movies, anime and manga show their love for their favorite fictional characters. This love has led to what can only be considered an all encompassing lifestyle where entire conventions are dedicated to this love. These faithfuls take great care and pride in doing what they do, and they have transcended the realm of what may have been considered geekish and nerdy, into now a mainstream cultural phenomenon, lending to the rise of a new kind of celebrity. A new kind of cool emerges.

It's incredible the momentum that cosplay has gathered over the past two decades. However, cosplay has been around for longer than you may think, and it is distinct from its cousin practice, costuming. Though the term costuming was a catch-all word to describe the practice of dressing up as characters (of any kind), the term cosplay, in its modern and current form, is surely more distinct. Costuming is, in my opinion, less passionate and lacks soul.

Costuming can be considered akin to dressing up on Halloween, or for a play or special event. I can hear dedicated costumers yelling at me, but it's commonly accepted that cosplay is a deeper, more meaningful practice.

Being so connected to your favorite character, literally transforms people who practice the art (yes I said art) of cosplay. They deeply embody these characters, and it comes out in their willingness to spend hours preparing and creating replica outfits and costumes of these fictional giants.

So let it be known that though the definition of cosplay, which is, the practice of dressing up as fictional characters, is more than that my friend, it's damn near religious for those that indulge in the practice, and they could give two fucks what you may think. Their world is big enough where their lifestyle is validated and rewarded, celebrating their own set of royal figures. We'll take a look at some of the more popular cosplayers later on. But first, let's take a look at how this all began. Where did cosplaying come from, and what's the history behind it all.

COSPLAY HISTORY

VOCAL.MEDIA posted an article 4 years back (at the time of this writing) simply titled, History of Cosplay. In it, they brought readers way back to the early 1900s, where they say was the time of the earliest documented versions of cosplay emerged. Here's the excerpt. "...the first documented instance of cosplay occurred in 1908 when Mr. and Mrs. William Fell, a Cincinnati, Ohio couple, attended a masquerade ball in costumes depicting Mr. Skygack and Miss Pickles, martians from a newspaper comic that first ran in the Chicago Day Book." The author, Patricia Sarkar, went on to write, "Before Star Trek, Star Wars or Dr. Who ignited legions of fans to dress up like aliens, sci-fi guru Forrest J. Ackerman donned a cape and tights to portray a pulp-inspired, futuristic entity at New York's first World Science Convention, in 1939. Ackerman would later become a key figure in the establishment of science fiction fandom."

The practice of dressing up in costumes, of course pre-dated the 1900s, but what's significant here is how intimately the practice mirrored popular characters in science fiction and fantasy. It's widely known that cosplayers 'play' characters that largely fall within those two genres.

The Artifice author, YsabelGo, from the-artifice.com, wrote this about the origin of cosplay: "Initially dubbed as 'costuming', cosplay began in the late 1930s in North America." She explains that back then, to successfully 'cosplay', you did not need to dress up like or mimic the character, but simply dress appropriately for the genre. Further in the article she writes, "In Japan, the manga series, Urusei Yatsura, and television series, Mobile Suit Gundam, helped launch the movement, as Japanese college students eagerly dressed as their favorite characters for conventions." These sentences are important to really stamp the origin, as many think cosplaying started in Japan, but more evidence points to it originating in North America.

BASED ON OUR STUDIES, it wasn't until the mid 80s that the term 'Cosplay' was coined, and has stuck to carry on to a wildly exciting culture.

As the history goes, it wasn't until 1984 that Nobuyuki Takahashi, founder of Studio Hard, attended the 42nd Worldcon in Los Angeles. A Wikipedia page tells us that "He was impressed with the masquerade and reported on it in My Anime, coining the term kosupure (from which cosplay is derived) in the process." Ranker.com explained in a similar article about the history of cosplay, "The Japanese translation for masquerade implied aristocracy, and therefore did not describe what he [Takahashi] saw at WorldCon. The word was eventually adapted to "cosplay." Takahashi's report also encouraged Japanese fans to include more costuming in their own conventions. The initial report also used the terms "costume play" (kosuchuumu purei) and the English "Hero Costume Operation" but kosupure was the term that caught on."

Image by: Wicked Pictures
Model: Riley Steele

And the rest is history. Cosplay has gone on to shape a large part of our society, where grown folks getting dressed up for fun is now seen as something that is so fucking cool. I mean have you seen some of the shit that some people do? Genius!

COSPLAY AND POP CULTURE

IN THE EARLY 1900s, you simply had stories and illustrations to inspire you. As magazines and comic books became more popular, the inspiration got more detailed. The with the rise of sci-fi film and TV shows, it shot things into another realm. Early common cosplay inspirations are that of super heroes, Star Trek and Star Wars, Flash Gordon, and so much more. And, with the rise of video games, it propelled the world of Cosplay even further, having fans of popular video games like Tomb Raider showing up to conventions as Lara Croft, or as Sailor Moon, Goku from Dragon Ball Z, Cloud Strife from Final Fantasy 7, and the list goes on. This is in no way an exhaustive write-up so if I missed Poison Ivy from the DC world, or Ash Ketchum and Misty from Pokemon, please don't lose your wits.

The rise in the popularity of Cosplay has over time moved into its perfect wedged niche in today's culture, with many people emerging as cosplay royalty (I told you we'll get to this part). These master cosplayers have such an impact on the community that they have gone on to take their passion of the art and turned it in to a full on business venture. Some making well over 6 figures for their cosplay appearances and paid craftsmanship.

But, who are these cosplay gods (so to speak), and why do the fans love them so much? Continue reading for more.

IF I MISSED POISON IVY FROM THE DC WORLD, OR ASH KETCHUM AND MISTY FROM POKEMON, PLEASE DON'T LOSE YOUR WITS!

COSPLAY AND ADULT THEMES

The Cosplay phenomenon has spread far and wide, even touching the realms of the adult industry. Fans have sexified so much of pop culture movies and shows, that you can search nearly everything and add porn at the end of it, and your search engine will bring up a shit ton of search results.

Since the late 60s and 70s, porn parodies based on pop culture have been produced. Magazines also saw rise to costumed dick hunting Amazons, and horny dudes took every opportunity to bone a female space alien. A great example of this is the cult classic film Flesh Gordon, which was a spoof off the popular sci-fi animated series, live action TV show and movies, and comic books, Flash Gordon. Flesh Gordon, was filled with cheesy dialogue and shit load of boobs and alien mischief.

Another classic example of cross-over into the adult realm is the sci-fi magazine, Heavy Metal. Heavy Metal magazine was a mature themed magazine filled with articles, ads, photos, nude illustrations and photos, and the main feature, which was usually an illustrated or comic book style entry that would usually span several pages. These stories were generally sci-fi action and drama. A classic motif is the damsel in distress, or the opposite badass powerful hottie that kicks ass. One of the most iconic Heavy Metal magazine is that of Heavy Metal F.A.K.K.2 video game, featuring Julie Strain on the cover. Julie Strain is a tall statuesque beauty, famously known as a b-class actor and adult model with big hair and a curvy physique. She was often playing roles in softcore movies, and was also the artistic inspiration behind the 2000 animated film, Heavy Metal 2000. The F.A.K.K. 2 character, named Julie was also cosplayed by dedicated fans.

Elvira is also another classic character. Played by adult model and actress Cassandra Peterson. Elvira is somewhat of a legendary character as she's being played by many even up on till today. Other worthy mentions that really speak to the cosplay culture is 2069: A Sex Odyssey, Star Virgin, Galaxina, and others.

Today, production houses like Brazzers, Wood Rocket and parody king Axel Braun has a long list behind his name, from cartoons to video games like the Legend of Zildo, Sonic the Vadgehog and parodies based on the famous Marvel Cinematic Universe, and DC characters.

COSPLAY AND THE FUTURE

Cosplay is here to stay, and camgirls, and amateur performers and clip artist have embraced this culture. Cam girls such as Elise Laurene, and CaylinLive are just a few examples. The future of cosplay is ours to define, and all the players are eager to cook up new and innovative means of making sure the culture stays alive. There is more access to certain materials and equipment now, so cosplayers can actually create replica Iron Man suits to the T, and show up looking like Wonder Woman, and you'd believe the player is actually the rope wielding, bondage inspired, Amazonian, Diana.

Cosplay, whether you like it or not is going nowhere...not an time soon. So, celebrate those who've made it their passion and turned it into something more meaningful. And respect those who choose cosplay ...it's more than just the costume.

THE SQUIRTING PHENOMENON

BY: Camgirl Vixen Mag

Remember the first time you discovered squirting? For most of you it was most likely while you were hiding behind closed doors jerking off to a video on Pornhub or some early 2000s porn site, and right before you know it, the girl on screen screams out as she shot a steady, hardcore stream of internal fluids from her pussy. Confused, you probably thought the hottie in the video was peeing all over the place. You didn't know quite what to make of it but you knew that this, as you will later discover is called squirting, or gushing, was exciting, and turned you the fuck on. Or, maybe, ladies, you were in high school or college, and you finally got a chance to fuck the lover you've been dreaming about, and they brought you to a very wet and soaking squirting climax. Or, maybe you were fantasizing about who ever, and you started stroking your g-spot in a way that was so pleasing to you, and after a few minutes, found yourself having to sneak to the washroom to clean up all the mess and then change your bed sheets in the end.

However you came across a squirting for the first time, you knew it changed how you perceived climaxing. And dudes feel like a real stud when a girl squirts while riding his dick or fingering her pussy.

There has been several theories about squirting over the years, what it is and isn't, who could do it and how to do it. We'll dive into these questions a bit to give you some insight about what the damn thing is. Grab your rain coats and goggles. We're in for a wet and slippery ride.

WHAT IS SQUIRTING?

FIRST, let's be clear that we are not speaking about female ejaculation here. From our studies, female ejaculation and squirting are quite different. Medical News Today says there are two different types of female ejaculate:

SQUIRTING FLUID: This fluid is usually colorless and odorless, and it occurs in large quantities.

EJACULATE FLUID: This type more closely resembles male semen. It is typically thick and appears milky.

Healthline.com take sa similar stance and states that "female ejaculate is a thicker, whitish fluid that resembles very diluted milk." And, according to a 2011 study (jsexmed.org), female ejaculate contains some of the same components as semen. This includes prostate specific antigen (PSA) and prostatic acid phosphatase.

In this article we are strictly looking at the more exciting of the two...SQUIRTING!

So what is it exactly? Because the fluid that shoots out of a woman's pussy while squirting comes from the same place, it's often considered to be pee...sort of. BBC.co.uk posted an article that explored the subject. An excerpt about what squirting is reads, "Squirting probably originates from the bladder, as there isn't any other structure within that area of the female anatomy that's able to hold that much liquid, or propel it with that much strength," asserts pharmacist Abbas Kanani. "During orgasm, the muscles relax and make it difficult to hold in urine, so it's released via the urethra."

Helloclue.com adds: "There is no conclusive agreement among scientists regarding the composition of female ejaculatory fluid. Although still unclear, female ejaculate fluid has been demonstrated to contain urine, and may also contain a combination of other fluids as well."

So in short, squirting has some components of pee, but chemically changed overall. So, squirting according to the experts is sort of peeing, but way more satisfying, especially when double with an orgasm.

“CYTHERIA
[HAS LONG

“THE

QUEEN””

THE RISE OF MAINSTREAM SQUIRTERS

Porn has been the catalyst for shooting the practice of squirting into the mainstream. Before as something that was hush hush is out there and we want to experience it...well most of us do in some way, shape or form. Pioneers in the biz when it came to squirting, hands down are porn stars such as Cytheria, which is dubbed the “Squirt Queen”. Others include Tiffany Fox, Tiffany Watson, Christy Love, and Kleio Valentien. Now since the mid 2000s, squirting started having its own category in porn, and now many of the top porn stars boast that they can squirt. Check out Autumn Falls, Alexis Fawx, Tiana Lynn, Jada Fire, Lily Thai, Jenna Presley, Leah Luv, Lily Carter, are amongst a list of heavy squirters in porn.

The squirting phenomenon even rolled in to the webcam world. I mean, why not. If you want to catch a girl squirt live on cam, just search for anyone of these squirting camgirls: Little Subgirl, delightfulhug, andrea_duque97, Elay Smith, ExoticGoddess, Amy_queen7, Asian_snow, Aimeekelly_, Natalinaxxx, just to name a few.

More and more women are unlocking the secret to being able to make themselves squirt, and despite the popularity, squirting on screen has been banned in many areas. In the UK for some time squirting in porn was banned, citing that one simply can't decipher whether it's pee or not. Even some webcam sites are very strict about no squirting in free public cams.

THE SQUIRTING PHENOMENON

HOW DOES A GIRL SQUIRT?

Now that you've gotten some good info on squirting, many of you may be wondering, how the fuck can I have it happen to me or my partner. Wait no more, here's the step by step from Women's Health article titled, "How To Make Yourself Squirt During Sex".

SQUIRT IN 7 SIMPLE STEPS

- 1 PUT SOME TOWELS DOWN ...JUST IN CASE.
- 2 TRY TO RELAX, AND GIVE YOURSELF PLENTY OF TIME TO GET TURNED ON.
- 3 START BY FOCUSING ON THE CLIT.
- 4 THEN, PLACE A LOT OF PRESSURE ON THE G-SPOT.
- 5 GET SOME HELP FROM A TOY.
- 6 DON'T STRESS ABOUT PEEING. JUST LET IT GO!
- 7 DON'T BE TOO HARD ON YOURSELF IF IT DOESN'T PAN OUT.

FINAL THOUGHTS

Squirting is in many ways still a mystery, as there still aren't any 100% conclusive study on the damn thing. One thing that is agreed upon is that it feels so fucking good, and if you can do it yourself or assist your partner in reaching a squirting orgasm, you achieved something many women wish they could get. A word of warning though. It's said that if you are able to get your partner to squirt, it builds a special bond with that person, as squirting is an intimate expression, greater than a basic orgasm. Whatever the case, squirting is fucking awesome, and anyone, if fortunate enough, should experience it at least once.

Q&A

“ I’M PROBABLY MORE
OF A GUSHER. I CAN USUALLY CONTROL THAT DEPENDING ON HOW I AM PLAYING WITH MYSELF ”

Where did you first learn about squirting? When did you first discover that you could squirt, and were you by yourself or with a partner?

I have always been a squirter! I can’t exactly remember the first time I squirted, as it was always normal and natural to me, but I was probably 14-15 years old while I was masturbating. I didn’t know that it was a special ability until a boyfriend told me.

Are you more an all over the place gusher or steady stream water hose type squirter?

I’ve done both, but I’m probably more of a gusher. I can usually control that depending on how I’m playing with myself. For example, I find that most of my fans love it when I exaggerate the spray and make more of a mess so I’ll move my hand back and forth across my pussy to make it spray or I’ll continue fucking myself with a dildo while squirting to only allow a small bit to spray out with each thrust, drawing it out more.

Was it surprise to you when you that you actually did squirt?

I’ve always been a squirter, so I never really had that shocking moment of finally doing it. I have had that surprising reaction from huge squirting orgasms that were really impressive though.

Have you trained yourself to squirt as the pleasure hits (on demand), or is it all spontaneous for you?

I squirt 99% of the time that I orgasm. The two go hand in hand for me. The only times I don’t are when I’m having sex and cum while the dick remains inside me. If I don’t push the dick out of me with my contractions or move myself off, the squirt really can’t come out. I also don’t typically squirt during anal play. I’m not exactly sure why as I’ve had some really intense, amazing orgasms from anal, but it just doesn’t usually result in squirting.

There are stories about squirters feeling embarrassed about squirting in the presence of an unsuspecting partner, thinking you’re pissing on them. Was or is this true for you...feeling embarrassed?

I did have some embarrassment about it between the ages of 15 and 21. When I first started having sex, I didn’t realize that squirting was abnormal. Once I had a few partners get caught off guard by it, I felt the need to ‘warn’ future partners. In high school, when I was trying to have sneaky sex with my boyfriend without our parents finding out, it was SUCH a pain in the ass! Having a squirting orgasm was such an inconvenience as it left a big, obvious mess behind or left my boyfriend with suspicious laundry to do himself. I enjoyed the sex and orgasms anyways of course, but it sucked having to deal with the aftermath. As I got older, I discovered that most guys were really turned on by it so I embraced it.

Do you or have you ever squirted on camera? How did the viewer(s) respond?

All the time! It is my most requested skill and I have plenty of fans that come to me specifically for it. They love how much I can squirt, how I can squirt multiple times, and how intense it can be!

Has squirting enhanced your sex life or has it taken away from it?

Squirting has always been a part of my sex life so I can only say that it has enhanced it. I don’t know a sex life without it!

With all the theories out there, what have you discovered that squirting is and isn’t?

SQUIRT IS NOT PEE!!! Sex workers that pee and claim it is squirt or shove a wet sponge in their vag to fake it for porn just help perpetuate false information. Squirt comes out of the same hole as pee but it is NOT the same liquid. Squirt is more watery, light, and mine is slightly sweet. The more hydrated I am, the more I squirt and better it tastes. It actually isn't possible to pee while having an orgasm, so if [you find] the pleasure is building and you feel like you're getting close but get that 'have to pee' sensation, go with it. [There are] many girls stop themselves from squirting because they're worried.

Squirting...does it meet all the hype it gets, or is it over-rated?

I am certainly thankful that I can squirt, as it has been an asset to me in my career in the adult entertainment industry. I also enjoy that my orgasms are obvious to my partner and [wet enough to] lubricate the fuck out my pussy to keep having sex! I also want to say, though, that squirting isn't necessarily the holy grail. The most intense orgasms of my life have NOT been squirting orgasms (they were from anal) and if you can't make your girl squirt, it doesn't mean that either of you are doing anything wrong! Pleasure should be the goal, not necessarily getting her to squirt. Squirting is just a fun talent and a bonus.

Any last words on this topic?

I squirt the easiest and the most when I get both G-spot and clitoral stimulation. I suggest a nice curved toy to hit the G-spot (the Njoy is a popular one!), curling your fingers when fingering to stroke it, or sexual positions that target the area plus either manual clitoral stimulation or a vibrator on the clit. My curved glass toy and Hitachi are my favorite combo!

BRANDI NYX

WATER
DEMON

'M BRANDI NYX this will be my second time speaking with you guys! I'm now a full time model and have left my other life behind and have been having an amazing time during this journey. I've met a lot of wonderful amazing people and have had the opportunity to make amazing beautiful art. I'm always trying to push for body positivity, female empowerment and fighting against various isms. I started when I was 28 years old and have been loving it ever since. I have been apart of the kink community for about 12 closer now to 13 years in the scene. I currently am apart of a team that produces online fantasy fulfillment it brings me joy being able to assist people with their passions and desires and help them turn them into reality or as close to reality as we can make it.

Where did you first learn about squirting?
I've known about squirting since I was probably 14 years old. It was like the holy grail or something.

When did you first discover that you could squirt, and we're you by yourself or with a partner?
I was on the phone with some poly guy I can't even remember who anymore and was using my wand and I guess the stars aligned, and it happened.

Are you more an all over the place gusher or steady stream water hose type squirter?
Not going to lie I can get a fair bit of distance. It comes out in a very directed river and I can stop and start squirting again because I can multi-orgasm which is very useful. I actually just squirted before doing this interview so it was all fresh in my mind!

Was it surprise to you when you that you actually did squirt?
Well the first time I ever squirted I was 26 so I honestly was surprised I could even do it.

Have you trained yourself to squirt as the pleasure hits (on demand), or is it all spontaneous for you?
There are certain people that if I think of them I will squirt without an issue. Other times I am a rubix cube good luck to you.

There are stories about squirters feeling embarrassed about squirting in the presence of an unsuspecting partner, thinking you're pissing on them. Was or is this true for you... feeling embarrassed?
Oh god yes because at some point you honestly don't know if you're squirting or just relentlessly peeing on people. Also when you look at all the drenched destruction you're like "Oh my god I am a water demon."

Do you or have you ever squirted on camera? How did the viewer(s) respond?
Yes, it produced great results! I've often thought of "edging" myself all week long then doing Friday night squirt fest!

Has squirting enhanced your sex life or has it taken away from it?
It's enhanced it tenfold. Squirting bonds you.

With all the theories out there, what have you discovered that squirting is and isn't?
It IS pee, it's just pee that went through a chemical change. It's still pee.

Squirting...does it meet all the hype it gets, or is it over-rated?
It meets the hype, it makes everything wet and nasty and awesome.

Any last words?
Thanks for taking the time to talk to me again! It's been wonderful and I've had a wonderful time as always.

Smoking hot, all-natural heartbreaker and former girl next door Rebecca Vanguard just added a ton of clothes and clips to her ManyVids store, so her fans can binge shop from home and have more of her to love.

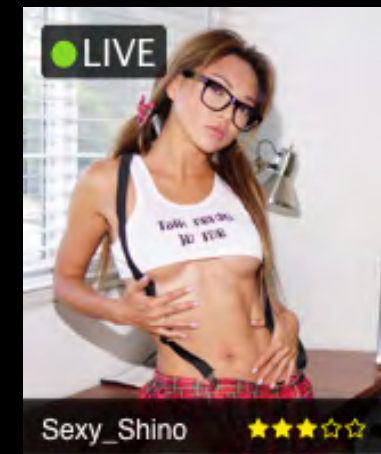

REBECCA has added new clothing items, including the dress she wore on the red carpet during the 2020 AVN Awards, as well as her outfits worn on adult sets, including a two-piece bondage bodysuit, school girl set, lingerie, and more.

She's added many new clips that range in price from $10.99 to $19.99, and many clips have been marked down 15% to 20%. Some of the clips are only available to members of Rebecca's MV Crush Club, which is available right now for less than $6 a month if you pay for a year in advance. All 113 of her videos are available at clubrebecca.com videos. Her MV Crush is on the same page—just click on the "Be My Crush" button anywhere on the page.

"My ManyVids store has been a hotbed of activity lately. I'll be adding more videos and clothing, so my fans can go shopping from their homes. It's great to be able to shop and be entertained, even if you can't leave your house," says Rebecca Vanguard.

Rebecca was also featured in a recent Medium piece titled "I Have Watched Coronavirus Porn and It Involves Lots of Purell: A quick and dirty survey of pandemic porn." Her Purell porn clip on Pornhub caught the attention of writer Joel Stein.
